

McCOY AND PHIPPS FACE CHARGES OF TREASON

Today's trial of Men Alleged to Have Resisted
Registration.

INDICTMENT HAS SIX COUNTS
The indictment against the two men, charged with treason, is the first in the history of the United States to be issued against citizens of the United States for resisting the draft.

Richard Evelyn Byrd, United States district attorney for the western district of Virginia, left last night at 9:30 to conduct the prosecution of William Vernon McCoy and John Walter Phipps, arrested on May 27 by Revenue Agent S. R. Brame, charged with treason, in the United States Court at Big Stone Gap to-morrow. Mr. Byrd will be assisted in the prosecution by Joseph E. Chittwood, of Roanoke, assistant district attorney of the Western District. These alleged anticonscription agitators must face the charge of treason under six indictments found in a true bill rendered against them in the June term of court at Roanoke.

The main features of these six charges are: rebellion against the authority of the United States; attempt to take the property of the United States by armed force; using armed force to resist the execution of the laws of the United States; raising a rebellion against the authority of the government; attempting to raise a rebellion against the authority of the government; and levying war against the United States in time of war, and giving aid and comfort to the United States; assisting the United States in the war; and attempting to raise a rebellion against the authority of the government.

REBELS TAKE EVERY PRECAUTION
The federal authorities have adopted every safeguard in the conduct of the trial. If it is possible, there will be no repetition of the Hillsville incident, when the Allen clan defied the authority of the courts before they were finally arrested. Special deputies and Secret Service men will be present to enforce order during the trial.

S. R. Brame, of Richmond, revenue agent, assisted by Arthur J. Devlin, of the United States Secret Service, arrested McCoy and Phipps at St. Paul, Wis. County. It has been rumored that Phipps will enter a plea of insanity. McCoy, who has long held the reputation of being a lawbreaker, continues his defiant attitude, and it is not known as yet what plea he will enter.

PLANET IS TEMPORARILY BARRED FROM MAILS

Editorial Held Up Because of Letter in Regard to Enlisting—Later
Admitted to Mail.

Awaiting instructions from Washington as to what disposition he should make of the case, Postmaster Hay T. Thornton recently barred from the mails the Richmond Planet for printing a letter of Uzziah Miner, colored, flouting his treason for refusing to volunteer in the United States Army. The letter, which was in form, and even at that, it did not purport to represent the views of either the colored race or of the newspaper; it merely represented the views and personal opinion of Uzziah Miner. The Richmond Planet has been in existence for thirty-four years, and, according to Mitchell, has never before been placed in such a predicament.

Some time ago Miner, editor of the Howard University Journal at Washington and is evidently a prominent man among the colored race. Because it might be of interest to the colored race, his letter was published. The letter argues, Mitchell defended himself by saying that Miner's attitude was not the policy of the paper, nor were the members of the colored race advised by the paper to accept his letter in full faith, and, moreover, that Miner himself did not advise against volunteering, nor did he advise opposition to the selective draft act. He was merely stating his own opinions.

Later, the Postmaster was notified from Washington that Mitchell's publication might continue the use of the mails.
